Perry Township, Richland

County, Ohio Perry Township is one of the twenty-five townships of Richland County, Ohio, United States. As of the 2010 census the population was 2,884.

Geography Located in the northern part of the county, it borders the following townships: Wayne Township - north Putnam Township, Darke County - northeast corner Perry Township, Carroll County - east Mount Vernon Township, Carroll County - southeast corner

Dodson Township - south
Jackson Township - west Perry Township, Darke County - northwest corner No municipalities are located in Perry Township. Name and history Perry Township was formed in 1818 from a part of Jackson Township, and named for Perry Chiles, proprietor. It is the only Perry Township statewide. Statewide, other Perry Townships are located in Butler and Licking Counties.

Government The township is governed by a three-member board of trustees, who are elected in November of odd-numbered years to a four-year term beginning on the following January 1. Two are elected in the year after the presidential election and one is elected in the year before it. There is also an elected township fiscal officer, who serves a four-year term beginning on April 1 of the year after the election, which is held in November of the year before the presidential election.

Vacancies in the fiscal officership or on the board of trustees are filled by the remaining trustees. References
