The use of reconfigurable hardware, in the form of a soft processor, can provide an effective means of a safe alternative to solely digital design. In this study, we have constructed a silicon prototype built with NXP's WS-LUTs which can be programmed to implement multiplexers or logic gates. In this demonstration, we have used two separate functions, logic negation, and NOT/NOR, to validate the principle of function-based fault-tolerance design. Using this system, it has been shown that, when a number of gates are built into the reconfigurable hardware, no additional hardware is required to implement a simple fault-tolerant design. In December we shared a whole load of photos from Phillip and Chiara Phillips' romantic Spanish honeymoon. Their four day trip involved a private jet to Madrid and a private safari in Botswana with the scenic wonderland and matchless wildlife as a backdrop. Since sharing their nuptials in March, Phillip has continued to release photos from their European holiday. The most stunning couple of pictures yet has come from Dublin, Ireland. A visitor's diary reveals that the couple visited the Marbella Yacht Club on a trip to Europe, and the photos show a lazy afternoon on the terrace of their hotel. The former couple have reportedly enjoyed an amicable split and are making efforts to remain friends, as well as raising awareness for men's health concerns. Joey thown at the open key as if he wanted to read. He was wearing a checkered doublet and yellow silk embroidered jacket over his brick red sleeves and the soft hills of some country. He was dressed with a style and elegance only second to his own personality and now he was rushing to become a shadow by the fireplace and step into the warm stuffy air of the room. He was surprised to see a certain distinguished looking guy on the door. Not daring to look for a long time so that he forgot what might happen then he stepped out on the floor with a stoop. The whole world seemed to seem to spin quickly in his head and he was running towards the door with the gait of a running freight train. He was on the way to join other gentlemen as he was told in the rules of the social gathering but his steps had been halted by the door and he was unable to make his way through. Through the half open door he noticed a women with long gold braid hair with a lot of embroidered silk stuffs was seated on a chair at the opposite side of the room and was looked very well than the gentlemen in the room. Those gentlemen welcomed him in a cozy and friendly way. He recognized their voices but had not meet them yet. The group which was held today was called 'Wit' group. He was told by the one whose name was Andy and had a breath of air which made him feel comfortable and ready to meet the guests. The group had formed after a battle which included drink of whiskey, women and a sort of quarrel if you may call it that. Joey was quite familiar with Andy and everybody else in the group. He remembered the first day that they formed this group. Andy had been a captain in one of the family fighting group until he fell in love with a certain girl. The girl was an heiress and was very attractive. She was a simple girl and loved Andy like an angel. Her parents were a simple and a hard working people. Andy, who was a first class man did not know anything about the money or the heiress wealth. He fell in love with the girl and married her even if the girl was not really keen on his wedding plans because of this reason she had to fulfill her family legacy. In the end they had a son and the son was named Adam. Adam was only nine years old and was childish but he was fond of his father and also he was a good actor in the drama
