(Photo by: James Dean) PREVIEW: Red Sox vs. Baltimore Orioles By Steven Nelson | August 2, 2013 | 10:10 PM EDT BOSTON -- After 15 years on the Boston Herald Radio, Jose Gonzalez and Rizzo show is over, but not before they shared some very big news with fans. Shortly after the show closed, former Red Sox players Nick Cafardo, Jerry Remy and Jerry Manuel announced that they will co-host the first of a new podcast on the iconic team. The new podcast will debut on August 6. "We want to thank Jose for all of his hard work over the past 15 years," Red Sox chairman Tom Werner said. "He was a great broadcaster who brought a personality to the radio that I've yet to see in any other Boston area sports radio show. "We know this will be a new adventure for Jose, but we're proud to be able to offer an opportunity to some talented people to co-host on a show that will be very interesting. We think it will be a great complement to the outstanding work that Nick, Jerry and Jerry are already doing." "I don't know why someone hasn't done this before," Manuel said. "I think it's a great idea and I think it's going to be a good thing. These guys have done well for each other, and they've done a great job together. "I can't think of any other way that Jose should go out than coming over to the radio." Manuel, who just announced a new contract with TBS, said he hasn't decided whether he will make his debut as a co-host on the new podcast. "Listen, I love Jose," Manuel said. "It's not an easy transition, but you know how we are. We are going to end on our own terms. I think we'll wait and see how it goes. "It's going to be very interesting. It's going to be like a reunion e79caf774b
